The EDCGDC is the lead business marketing arm for Greensburg/Decatur County, an intermediary between local businesses and state and federal economic assistance entities, and the host for the Ec015 Workforce Development Coordinator. The EDCGDC organization provides economic development program delivery to Greensburg and all of Decatur County. EDCGDC efforts include not only business attraction, but also business retention.

The EDCGDC:

- Works with state and local officials to create an atmosphere conducive to economic growth
- Coordinates communication and cooperation between government and business
- Promotes positive and productive land development while focusing on the needs of the community
- Motivates and coordinates planning/zoning initiatives to maximize the use of community land and physical resources
- Uses all available resources to assist with the expansion and retention of local businesses and industry
- Supports and develops programs to improve education and training of the county's workforce
