

Meet the Hoosier Energy Economic Development Staff

Jeff Quyle

Jeff Quyle, Economic Development Coordinator, has worked for rural electric cooperatives in Indiana for 20 years in the fields of strategic studies and government relations in addition to his economic development experience while working in the Indiana Department of Commerce.

Jeff has also served in local government and is past president of a local economic development organization, bringing an understanding of how to approach communities for economic development projects. He served as a founding member of the board for the Indiana Rural Development Council.

He earned a bachelor's degree from Wittenberg University and Masters Degrees from Indiana University and the University of Kent at Canterbury.